You are here

by Andrea DeAngelis

You are here
in that circle
of red and dread
that center
of despair
and I don't care.

PUBLISHER'S INFORMATION

The Camel Saloon is now closed for submissions. Many thanks for all the patronage.

Going nowhere
slow and slower
coarser and colder.

The subway stalagmites
growing into many rows
of graying teeth
that will cut your throat.

No one cares
what you think
only what you do
and what you do isn't doing but only your job
which makes you feel
less than nothing.

So you are here
when you only want to disappear.

You are starting to believe that bitch Becky
who told everyone
"Oh, she'll never get anywhere."

You are here
you are here
you will never be there.
